PUBLIC NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT Arizona Board of Regents NAU Presidential Search Advisory Committee Co-Chairs Fred DuVal and Lyndel Manson will facilitate a town hall on Thursday, November 12, 2020 from 5:00 – 7:00 p.m. at Northern Arizona University High Country Conference Center, Humphrey’s Room, 201 West Butler Ave., Flagstaff, Arizona 86001. The town hall will feature an in-person event and will be livestreamed for those who would like to join virtually.

Regents invite the general public and NAU students, faculty and staff to offer insights and engage with the regents during the town hall and ask questions and share feedback about the search for the next president of Northern Arizona University.

For in person attendance pre-registration is required and participants will be admitted in the order in which they register. The registration form is available at the following link: <https://www.azregents.edu/townhall>. Attendance at the town hall is limited to 40 people due to COVID-19. Facemasks must be worn in order to attend and participate in the in-person event.

Virtual audience members can submit questions or comments in advance until 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 12, 2020 using the following link: <https://www.azregents.edu/townhall>. Questions and Comments will be read aloud during the town hall as time permits.

Members of the public may attend the virtual town hall by viewing the livestream of the town hall.
