

Changes to State Statute made by the Arizona Legislature during the 2013 session, mandates that students who are funded through the WICHE Professional Student Exchange Program, and do not discharge their obligation by practice, must repay 100% of the funds expended on their behalf plus interest.