Director, Health Sciences

The Director, Health Sciences supports the board’s oversight and governance of the Arizona University System health and life sciences areas. This is a part time position. This position reports to the ABOR Executive Director.

The Director, Health Sciences works directly with the board, board executive director, and senior university representatives on university work force needs. This person is the ABOR Liaison with Arizona university system health science representatives and local healthcare industry leaders. Advises and assists in the development, maintenance, and implementation of the Regents’ and universities’ long-range business and strategic plans. Handles ad hoc special assignments with focus on aligning Arizona university programs with workforce needs and with particular emphasis on health and life science areas. Administer or participate in special projects as directed by the Board Executive Director.

Minimum qualifications include Bachelor’s degree in a related field and five years of progressively increasing responsible experience; OR, any equivalent combination of experience and/or education from which comparable knowledge, skills and abilities have been achieved.

The successful candidate will be familiar with Arizona university governance, organization, and operations and functions, as well as Arizona government, economy and workforce data sources. Demonstrate significant leadership experience in state agency/system or higher education institutions. Have strong networks and relationships within the higher education space in Arizona. Demonstrate extensive experience building and leading complex initiatives, including organizing and managing teams, developing, and leveraging partnerships, and ensuring timely, high-quality deliverables.

Applicants should send cover letter, resume and the names and contact information of three professional references who are able to speak to the qualifications listed above to: hr@azregents.edu or Arizona Board of Regents • 2700 North Central Avenue, Suite 400 • Phoenix, Arizona 85004. The review of applicants will begin on October 24, 2022 and will remain open until filled.

The Arizona Board of Regents is an equal employment opportunity and affirmative action employer.